

New York Stock Market

New York, December 13.—Tension was relaxed today in the stock market, which presented more nearly a normal appearance after the troubled days which had preceded. Fluctuations of some of the leaders were still wide and the market continued unsettled, and at times feverish, but there was no approach to the excited dealings and violent movements of yesterday.

Prices rose briskly at the beginning of the day, and before the first hour was ended gains of one to two points were scattered throughout the market.

Prices rose briskly at the beginning of the day, and before the first hour was ended gains of one to two points were scattered throughout the market.

Unexpected weakness developed in new quarters while the advance was in progress, and traders who had been confident on the strength of the market yesterday afternoon and the continued advance to-day became more cautious.

Canadian Pacific sold down nearly five points on offerings, said to have come largely from Berlin. New York Central developed weakness, and Southern Pacific, which had been bought aggressively through the recent decline, fell back more than two points.

The market weakened and earlier gains were lost. In the early afternoon there was a rally, but at the end of the day net changes were small.

Weakness of the foreign exchanges on account of the rumors of unfavorable developments in the international political situation influenced this market to some extent, although Wall Street is less sensitive than recently to changes abroad, owing to the pre-occupation with its own affairs.

Forecasts of to-morrow's bank statement suggested a small cash loss. Aside from the regular currency movements, the position of the banks has been improved by receipts of gold from abroad.

The bond market was irregular. Some active issues covered a wide range. United States bonds were unchanged on call.
